El Paso's cooperation in bringing into use for the proposed borderland highway was asked on the strip of road running from a point 41 miles west of Deming, N. M. to Rodeo, a distance of 12 miles. The only change this section of road would make, if incorporated in the berderland highway would be the elimination of that strip non running by way of Lordsburg to Rodeo.

'INDEPENDENTS' JITNE HO COUNTY TICKET IS ENDORSED

Meeting County and City Democratic Club Stormy One; Preparing Ticket for County Election.

A tentative list of the candidates on an "independent" licket was announced Saturday morning at the county court house. The "independent" ticket will be put into the field, so it is reported, at an early day and the only reason announcements or meetings have not been held up to the present time was because the "independents" first wanted to know whom the El Pase City and County Democratic club would nominale.

nate.

The "independents" are committed to E. P. Higgins of associate justice of the court of civil appeals and will place no opposition in that field. Judge P. R. Price will be a candidate for reclection for the 41st district court; judge Ballard Coldwell, for the 65th district court and W. D. Howe for the 21th district court and management judge Dan M. "McClintock Tricked."

The general talk in the courthouse Saturday morning was that E. B. Mc-Clintock had been tricked, into becoming affiliated with the El Paso County and City Democratic club with th. assurance that he would be designated as county judge nominee.

"I have learned one thing," said Mr. McClintock, "and that is the men who came to me were not my friends. I shall be in the race and perhaps as county clerk."

No definite time was set for a rally of the "independents," but it is understood that the call will go forth in the coming week.
